

The male Wood Duck is beautifully colored with iridescent green, blue and purple feathers, separated by white-lined markings extending from the neck to the face. This variety of colors and patterns help disguise it within its habitat.