

THE STORY

Boozoo, Poots, Dimbo, Moochie and Nermal were five clowns who worked at a carnival, a circus, a county fair, a TV show and at children's parties. They were 50, 48, 45, 40 and 38 years old. They each had a favorite type of pie they preferred to be thrown at their face, which included cherry, peach, apple, pecan and lemon. They cleaned their pie-filled faces with handkerchiefs that were plaid, striped, polka-dot, tie-dyed or starry. Based on the clues, match the clowns with where they worked, their ages, their preferred pie flavors and their handkerchief patterns.

THE CLUES

1. The oldest clown worked at a county fair, preferred apple pie and had a polka-dot handkerchief.
2. The youngest clown worked at children's parties, preferred peach pie and had a plaid handkerchief.
3. Poots and Dimbo didn't work at a county fair, on a TV show or at children's parties.
4. Boozoo was 10 years older than Nermal, and Poots was 10 years older than Moochie.
5. The carnival clown preferred lemon pie and cleaned his face with a tie-dyed handkerchief.
6. Nermal didn't have a striped handkerchief, and Poots didn't have a tie-dyed handkerchief or prefer cherry pie.
